FRESHER'S SOCIAL PROGRAMME

On 8th July, 2025, Govt. Saitual College held its Annual Fresher's Social Programme at GSC Auditorium to welcome the I semester students. The programme was jointly organized by the Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC) and the Students Support and Progression Cell, and it was well attended by the students, teaching and non-teaching staff of the college. The programme was chaired by Mr. Zamlianmang, Asst. Professor, Dept. of Economics and the event proceedings were graciously conducted by Dr. F. Lalhriatpuii, Asst. Professor, Dept. of Political Science and Dr. Christina Lalengkimi Murray, Asst. Professor, Dept. of Education.

The programme commenced at 1:30PM with an opening devotion led by Ms. Lalhmahruaii (LDC). This was followed by a beautiful welcome song presented by the EU Choir. The introduction of the freshers was then conducted by Ms. R. Khawpuimawii and Ms. Zomuanpuii Ralte, Asst. Professors, Dept. of Mizo. This official introduction aimed at integrating the new students into the college community and providing them with a platform to interact with faculty members and senior students of the college.

The programme continued with a solo performance by Lalruathlua from 1st semester. This was followed by a speech from the freshers, where a representative expressed their gratitude for the warm welcome and shared their excitement for the upcoming academic year. On behalf of the senior students, Esther Lalmalsawmi (V semester) also delivered a heartfelt speech, offering guidance and encouragement to the new students.

To further entertain the audience, a soulful solo performance was presented by Maria Lalhmingliani (III semester). Following this, Jacob Vanlalrinchhana, Vice President of the Students' Union, welcomed the freshers and encouraged them to actively participate in the various student activities and platforms available. Representing the teaching faculty, Mr. T. John Tualzamang, Vice Principal of Govt. Saitual College delivered an encouraging speech. He reminded the students of the college motto "Brighter Tomorrow" and the biblical foundation of the college- Psalm 126: 5, 7 and emphasized the importance of discipline, hardwork, loyalty and perseverance for academic success.

The programme proceeded with a melodious solo performed by Manase Lalrempuia (V Semester) and a motivational speech from Mr. Lalzarmawia, Principal of Govt. Saitual College. The Principal extended a warm welcome to the freshers and encourage them to aim for excellence both in academics and in all aspects of life, so that they may become responsible individuals capable of serving their families and the nation with integrity.

The Chairperson delivered vote of thanks wherein he expressed heartfelt gratitude to all the performers, faculty, and participants for making the event a success. After this, the programme officially concluded with a closing prayer led by Ms. Lalmalsawmi, Dept. of History.
